

5th Grade, Trimester 1:

| Reading/ELA | Writing | Mathematics | Science | Social Studies |
|---|---|--|--|--|
| Identifying Theme Analyzing characters Structure of fictional literature Point of view Compare & Contrast (Author's Purpose) Use text evidence to support answers | Narrative Writing Developing story elements Parts of speech: Verb Tenses Grammar & Punctuation: Dialogue structure Language: Homophones, homonyms, synonyms, and antonyms The Writing Process | Writing algebraic expressions Order of operations Place Value of Large Numbers Notations of Whole Numbers Multi-Digit Multiplication Long Division | Earth Science: Weather Forecasting | Early Americans Age of Exploration |

5th Grade, Trimester 2:

| Reading/ELA | Writing | Mathematics | Science | Social Studies |
|--|--|---|--|--|
| Identifying Main Idea and Details, Summarizing Draw information from multiple sources Quoting accurately from a text Analyze multiple accounts of the same event Compare and contrast different informational sources on the same topic Use text evidence to support answers | Informational Writing Parts of speech: Verb Tenses Grammar & Punctuation: Title punctuation - when to underline, italicize, or use quotes Figurative Language: Similes and Metaphors Organizing ideas into multiple paragraphs Introductions and conclusions | Place value and notations of decimals Adding and Subtracting decimals and fractions (including mixed numbers) Multiplying and dividing decimals Fractions number sense (finding equivalent fractions, comparing fractions, ordering fractions) Converting improper fractions and mixed numbers | Life Science: Cell Structure Human Body Systems | Colonial America American Revolution |

5th Grade, Trimester 3:

| Reading/ELA | Writing | Mathematics | Science | Social Studies |
|--|--|---|-------------------|----------------|
| Drawing inferences from literature texts | Opinion/Argument Writing | Multiplying fractions (whole and mixed numbers) | Physical Science: | Map Skills |
| Drawing inferences from informational texts | Parts of speech: Prepositions, Interjections, and Conjunctions | Dividing fractions (whole and mixed numbers) | Energy | US Geography |
| Identifying theme of poetry | Grammar & Punctuation: Comman usage, other | Volume of rectangular prisms | Flight & Rocketry | |
| Structures in poetry | punctuation to separate items in a series | Measurement conversions | | |
| Identifying fact and opinion in information text | Figurative Language: | Coordinate graphing and problem solving | | |
| Use text evidence to support answers | Idioms, adages and proverbs | Line plots | | |
| | Introductions and conclusions | Properties and classification of 2-D figures | | |