January 2020

“Relate. Connect. Understand”

“Micro” Moment:

“In December, the PTO organized the annual Holiday Shoppe fundraiser to be in the library this year. Since all classrooms are occupied during the micro period, employees who work for the Micro City Library didn’t know where they would go or how much business they would lose from changing locations. Instead of closing up shop, the library worked together to request a library rental fee of $60 to make up for the inconvenience and potential lost sales. Mrs. Williams accepted this rate as a fair fee and offered the library a temporary location in the conference room. This messy problem was solved and the library is now set to open for the first marketplace of the year!”
